❖ How Some Publicly Questioned Deaths Have JFK RFK Connections and V.P. Nixon and LBJ 1957 and ownards Connectoins

Could LBJ (or Ann Dunham) have been a Grave Digger? "Ghoul Agent who searches obituaries and graveyards for names of the deceased for use by agents. Barack Obama Jr.'s maternal grandmother, Madelyn Dunham, lived in Hawaii for over 40 years—from around 1960 until her death in 2008. The move also aligned with job opportunities—Madelyn later built a long career at the Bank of Hawaii, where she rose to become a vice president. Yes, there is some reporting that while living in Hawaii, Madelyn Dunham did volunteer work connected to the courts. Also, the more dramatic claim that her probate-related volunteer work gave her access to dead people's Social Security numbers comes from conspiracy-oriented and low-reliability sources, not from the stronger biographical sources I ChatGPT found. Ed asserts LBJ had started the East-West-Center in Hawaii, it was CIA connected and as a US Senate legislation project and that this included according to Wayne Madsen a plan for Obama Jr. to posibly grow up in Idonesia. Presumably John Foster Dulles would have been in on the planning.

Malcolm X was assassinated on February 21, 1965, at age 39 and I assert this was tied to very secret Obama Jr. plans Malcom X had been asked to participate in but then JFK was shot to death of over these Obama Jr. plans so Malcom X was too and then the focus was shifted to Cuba, not Indonesia.

Local Television News at scene of Crash: Investigators from the National Transportation Safety Board were in Harold Cameron's cornfield, trying to determine what caused this private plane to crash, killing its two occupants.

Journalists and news clip footage: The bodies of Gary Caradori and eight-year-old A.J. were found in the wreckage in this field. The fact that the wreckage is scattered over a large area certainly demonstrates that it did break up in flight. The exact mechanism of breakup is still unknown.

Journalists: The federal investigation was never able to discover what tore the plane apart.

Caradori's wife Sandy on camera: There are things missing from the plane. His briefcase is missing. Again, we'll never know what all was missing because I don't know what he had with him. I don't know what he did in Chicago. He may have had information he was coming back with.

Caradori's Airplane 'Broke Up in Flight'

By Robert Dorr
and Gabriella Stern
World-Herald Staff Writers

The small plane that carried Lincoln private detective Gary Caradori and his 8-year-old son to their deaths in Illinois early Wednesday apparently broke up in flight, two investigators said Wednesday.

"It was a scattered wreckage pattern," said Bill Bruce, an investigator with the National Transportation Safety Board. "It certainly demonstrates that it did break up in flight. The exact mechanism of the breakup is unknown."

Sheriff Tim Bivins of Lee County, Ill., who spent 12 hours at the crash site, said he didn't think an explosion occurred while the plane was in the air. He said he thought the plane "came apart in the air" and exploded on impact. Bivins said plane debris was scattered over an area three-quarters of a mile long.

Caradori was the private investigator looking into allegations of child sexual abuse for the Legislature's Franklin Credit Union committee. The committee is investigating matters related to the 1988 failure of Omaha's Franklin Community Federal Credit Union. Caradori worked for the committee.

Caradori, 41, and his son, Andrew, died on their way back to Lincoln after attending the Tuesday night All-Star Game in Chicago. Caradori was piloting the plane, which left Chicago early Wednesday morning.

Chauncey Holt came forward claiming to be one of the "three tramps" photographed in Dealey Plaza shortly after the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.
At various times in his life, he claimed to be a CIA operative, an accountant for Meyer Lansky, and ostensibly provided false ID documents to Lee Harvey Oswald.

Eight days befre his death from caner Holt was interviewed on camera at Dealey Plaza showing the location he was in when JFK was shot and the clothes he was wearing is in the Trainyard Photos and he is visible in the Grassy Knoll area. At the time of his death he had accumlated massiv CIA records that would be included in the release of his book that would be released when the relevant involved parties had all died. Jim Donegan died in 2014 and I view is death as "not an accident" but not by Holt either, it is just that was the after the death of both James and Glorian Donegan.

- ➜Phillip Marshal Special Activities Pilot CIA and also Barry Seal

Mexico City, 22 January 1963

In the picture, the first man, at front left, is assassin David Sanchez Morales (alias Felix Rodriquez, alias Max Gomez), who began with CIA covert operations during the failed Bay of Pigs invasion, has been well documented as an Intelligence Community asset. He has been identified as the assassin of Che Guerra. [6] The third man from the left is my former boss Barry Seal. The remaining characters are all known associates of Special Activities and/or organized crime in the 1960s. They have all been identified, but of the greatest interest in this context is the fellow sitting between the assassin and Barry Seal. [7]

Here may very well be the founding members of the Intelligence Community's Special Activities Division. This photo was taken ten months before President John F. Kennedy was gunned down in Dallas. Some independent investigators believe that this was the assassination team, nicknamed Operation 40, that pulled it off. But at any rate, let's go back to the man sitting between my former boss, Barry Seal, and the CIA assassin.

Now fasten your seatbelt.

The man sitting amongst mobsters, drug smugglers, and assassins is the final piece of the 9/11 puzzle. He is a Yale graduate, a member of Book and Snake, one of those wonderful secret societies linked to nearly all of our 9/11 and Iran-Contra heads. He was a Psi Upsilon fraternity brother of Poppy Bush's blood brother, who was an executive at the Riggs Bank when Prince Bandar's money flowed to the 9/11 hijackers. [8]

In his junior year at Yale, he was recruited through Book and Snake into Central Intelligence. Just as this photo suggests, he would become a top operative in Special Activities during and after the Cuban revolution. [9]

His name is Porter Johnston Goss, born November 26, 1938. After graduating from Yale, he operated as a CIA officer in Latin America in the early Sixties. Twenty-five years into his career in "special activities" Mr. Goss had little trouble raising money for a role change. He ran for a seat in the United States Congress.

In 1989, Mr. Goss joined a host of secret society members who had begun to execute a capture of high political offices and top positions on Wall Street, the

The Familiar Taste of Poison

Ted Gunderson wrote on the McMartin (Manhattan Beach City, Los Angeles County, State of California that Ed Donegan went to in 1961-1963) and believed it was part of the scheme run by George H.W. Bush to "sell" (place) children were secretly tied to world elite families but placed anonymously in orphanaes or cover-idenity families. These children were abuse "ritualisticaly" to study resilliance to trauma, or if traumatized then used to study trauma as a disease. Ted gunderson at the request of the former head of the CIA William Colby (and Colby's Vietnam CIA direct-report John Decamp working for Colby as Colby held the cover-identity of Ambassador to Vietnam) wrote the introduction to the report at Franklin Nebraska Boystown. White house connections in the 1980's were clear under George H.W. Bush 1980's and Ted Gunderon and Ed Donegan and Jen Moore believe this included 1958 expansion of McMartin preschool Manhattan Beach City with a new building and secret areas of research in the new complex. Jen Moore died "questionably" of naturual causes and Ted Gunderson said he was under constant vigilantism attack during his life by the FBI and media and officials such as Eric Holder and the doctor of Ted Gunderson and others assert Gunderson was poisoned by Arsenic at least in one of his speaches he asserted radioltogial or other poison.

Maria Kutschera was likely from TWO Minimal Brain Dysfuction familes. Maria Von Trapp had it and could not live the disciplined life at the Convent. Though Edward of Windsor carried the gene he probably had only one copy of it or something like that. His brother Albert of York did have it. Based on this history of how these heroic Von Trapp setup children sang for Hitler Youth indoctrination musice in the years follwoing her leaving the convent (about 9 years) by this time Glorian and Norma Jean in the USA were living safely, under hidden identies, with Joseph Kennedy Sr. and Admiral Halsey helping the Vatican with the problem "What to do about Maria."

Before his death, Andrew Breitbart talked with Sheriff Arpaio regarding Obama's birth certificate. Breitbart was to released the "Obama video(s)" on March 1. He also planned-on vetting President Obama's roots – something that had not been done successfully by the mainstream media. On May 17, 2012, Breitbart News released an article showing that President Obama's literary agency stated that he was born in Kenya. It was an error committed by a literary editor at-the-time. Andrew Breitbart was going to use any and every tactic available to attack Obama's 2012 reelection chances.,

THE BREITBART CORONER: THE MYSTERIOUS DEATHS OF ANDREW BREITBART & MICHAEL CORMIER (CONSPIRACY DEATHS BOOK 1)

SUNDAY, MARCH 4, 2012

Michael received a phone call to assist on a private autopsy for a celebrity case. MAC Autopsy Services was a small business Michael organized for work outside of the Coroner's office; this enabled him to take side jobs for extra cash. The private autopsy was conducted by Dr. David Posey of Glenoaks Pathology Group. On his website, Dr. Posey is described as "having personally conducted greater than 3,000 autopsies. He has been sought out for expert forensic consultation for Discovery Channel documentaries and Unsolved Mysteries."

Michael worked with for Glenoaks Pathology Group many times before, often performing the entire autopsy while Dr. Posey observed, and this case was to be no different. Michael arrived back at his brother Gary's later that afternoon, and as he approached his brother Ed, he pulled a toe tag out of his pocket and said, "I have a souvenir for you." He then handed Ed a toe tag and said, "I just autopsied Andrew Breitbart."

Michael made an off-hand comment about Breitbart's enlarged heart, and that was the end of the discussion with Ed. Michael made another statement to a family member who wishes to remain anonymous. They recalled Michael saying, "Breitbart's family was suspicious of the death and wanted a second opinion."

A Homeland Securithy Whistle-blower said they found Brittany Murphy on the Terror Watchlist, Jen Moore and others assert immigrants are let through the border for dirty-work to be done by DHS > Brittany Anne Murphy-Monjack November 10, 1977 – December 20, 2009) was an American actress and singer, known for her equal mastery of the comedy and drama genres.

January 20, 2009, Barack Obama (full name Barack Obama Jr.) was officially sworn in as the 44th President of the United States. Vetters of the Barrack Obama Jr. story-line and birth certicates, the records of the mother, of Malcom X involvment in that story and his unfinished diary, became even more contentious as he left the Senate to be sworn in as President. Ed Donegan asserts the Ann Dunham records are questionable as is the birth of Obama Jr. Anne Dunham) married Lolo Soetoro.They were married in 1965 after her divorce from Barack Obama Sr. Lolo Soetoro was from Indonesia, and after the marriage, Ann moved there with her young son, Barack Obama. Lolo Soetoro worked as a geographer, and his career was closely tied to geological and mapping work, which often overlapped with mining and land surveys. After the political upheaval of 1965–1966 (when Suharto came to power), Soetoro returned to Indonesia. He worked as a civil servant in the Indonesian government, which at the time was under Suharto's rule. Like many educated Indonesians, he later also worked in sectors tied to foreign oil and resource companies operating with government approval.

The Interconntections Ed Donegan aserts is that children or arrangd births and fabricated birth records were evaluated and possibly later selected as Agents of Influence by the CIA who were already studying them in child development and that Barrack Obama Jr. was one of those children and studied for Borderline personality but did not have it, but was studied at McMartin school at least very early.

> Wade was dark and good-looking in a flat, all-American way. What made him irresistible was his rage. He was enraged about almost everything and glowed with anger. Georgina explained that his father was the problem. “His father’s a spy, and Wade’s mad that he can never be as tough as his father.” I was more interested in Wade’s father than in Wade’s problem. “A spy for us?” I asked. “Of course,” said Georgina, but she wouldn’t say more. Wade and Georgina would sit on the floor of our room and whisper. I was supposed to leave them alone, and usually I did. One day, though, I decided to stick around and find out about Wade’s father. Wade loved talking about him. “He lives in Miami, so he can get over to Cuba. He invaded Cuba. He’s killed dozens of people, with his bare hands. He knows who killed the president.” “Did he kill the president?” I asked. “I don’t think so,” said Wade. Wade’s last name was Barker., - Girl, Interupted the story Ed Donegan and Jen Moore and Gary Cardori and Williamn Colby and others tell Borderline research at McMartin and Franklin and JFK RFK ties.

> Organic arsenic refers to arsenic compounds that contain carbon and are commonly found in nature, especially in foods like seafood. These forms are generally considered less toxic to humans. Inorganic arsenic refers to arsenic compounds that do not contain carbon. These forms are more toxic and are typically found in contaminated water, soil, and certain industrial or agricultural products. Historically, inorganic arsenic has been used in pesticides and poisons.”

James D. Watson in refence to Susanna Kaysen.

James D. Watson is an American molecular biologist, geneticist, and (as Stanely Ann Dunham mother of Obama Jr.) a zoologist best known for:

- ➜ Co-discovering the structure of DNA in 1953, alongside Francis Crick
- ➜ Helping reveal the famous double helix model, one of the most important breakthroughs in modern science
- ➜ Winning the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 1962 with Crick and Maurice Wilkins

He also served as a longtime leader at Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory and played a role in launching the Human Genome Project.

About the confusion

- ➜ Watson was actually married to Elizabeth Lewis (since 1968).
- ➜ Susanna Kaysen is a writer, best known for her memoir Girl, Interrupted.
- ➜ There's no historical record connecting them romantically.

> If you want, I can explain why Watson is controversial in recent years—his scientific legacy and public statements have created a complicated reputation.

- ➜ Ted Gunderon: Told the same stories that George H.W. Bush and many GOP chronies had their hand in the JFK assassination and acts of terror since then.
- ➜ TWA 800 and UAL 553 and Possibly the Pan Am Lockerby crash: All had links to CIA activities, Jed Jonhson Interviews Magazine and the Heart family aligned with Nixon backing MK-Ultra.

It seems the Kennedy family generally all knew about it and what was felt about by any one of at any point in history may be hard to reconstruct. Giancana family says she was going to talk and she was silinced, Ed Donegan notes the timing of her death and the supposed one year birthday (of record) of Barrack Obama Jr. Monroe Died August 4, 1962 (age 36 years), 12305 Fifth Helena Drive and Ed Donegan suggests this plot for and with the CIA involved Indonesia and even was told in farsical way in the film Rocky Horror Pictures Show set at the Lawford home.
- ➜ Malcom X and Dr. King Ed Donegan asserts these Agents-Of-Influence in society at large had been contacted by J. Edgar Hoover and others and enlisted into a plan for the peaceful support of certain black families helped into politics. One such family would be the Obama -Dunham family line.
- ➜ Dorothy Killgallen: She "knew too much." Like RFK and Paul Schrade, like JFK she knew much had been tied to the FBI complicity in the JFK asssination. Like Marilyn Monroe died of a barbituate overdoes, not the famousl Shell Fish Poion Heart Attack Gun, but a several drug protocal that was designed by the CIA for usage against Castro of relaxation drugs at a toxic level.
- ➜ Sam Giancana: He was found in his basement kitchen with multiple gunshot wounds, including shots to the back of the head and mouth, which many investigators believed resembled a professional mob-style execution. This was the post-impeachment USA when Giancana was about to testify, Giancana who worked for William King Harvey who Chauncy Marvin Holt and Myers Lanksy worked under and Charles Harrelson is tied to as a contractor of Murder, Inc.,
- ➜ Robert F. Kennedy AND Paul Schrade: Both were part of North American Aviation history at the Inglewood plant, P-51 and F-86 James Donegan flew. Santo Bono worked for UAW in Detroit building engines, he relocated to Inglewood, Los Angeles County, CA. Ted Gunderson believes US Represtive Sonny Bono was silenced by thugs about the same time WIlliam Colby died, TWA 800 crashed, and other major events percieved as suspicious. It is said that experts played to underlying anger to proram Sirhan Sirhan into a rage attack on those two aviation figures, RFK and Schrade as selling planes for use in the Middle east.

Got it — you’re not asking for facts so much as clean, historically literate phrasing that sounds like it belongs in serious Cold War analysis, not a rant or a slogan. Below are a few articulation options, from neutral-academic to slightly more interpretive. You can lift sentences wholesale or mix and match.

Neutral, academic formulation

During the Cold War, American political culture contained two competing theories of organized labor—both with roots extending well before the postwar period.

One view held that labor unions were a legitimate, constructive, and largely non-corrupt mechanism for collective bargaining, capable of stabilizing industrial relations and securing fair wages within a democratic capitalist system.

The opposing view regarded organized labor as a potential ideological and structural entry point for communist influence. From this perspective, unions were seen as especially vulnerable to infiltration by leftist organizers, making labor politics a matter of national security rather than merely economic policy.

Richard Nixon can be situated firmly within this latter tradition, while Robert F. Kennedy—along with figures such as the Donegan family—aligns more closely with the former.

Slightly sharper, more interpretive (still defensible)

By the Cold War era, two rival conceptions of organized labor coexisted in U.S. political thinking.

The first treated unions as democratic institutions: imperfect but fundamentally legitimate vehicles for collective bargaining that helped integrate working-class demands into a stable capitalist order.

The second framed labor as an ideological battleground. In this view, unions were not merely economic actors but potential conduits for communist organization and influence, rendering labor policy inseparable from internal security concerns.

Nixon's labor politics reflect this security-oriented suspicion, whereas Robert F. Kennedy—and the Donegans—operated from a belief that strong, regulated unions were compatible with, and even essential to, democratic governance.

More explicitly Cold War / national-security language

Cold War labor politics were shaped by a persistent tension between economic pluralism and internal security.

One tradition viewed organized labor as a stabilizing force—an institutionalized means by which workers could negotiate wages and conditions without resorting to radical politics.

The counter-tradition treated labor unions as strategically sensitive terrain, vulnerable to communist infiltration and therefore requiring surveillance, containment, and at times direct intervention by the state.

Nixon exemplified this latter, security-driven approach, while Robert F. Kennedy and the Donegans represent a strand of liberal anticommunism that sought to strengthen unions precisely to deny space to radical influence.

If you want to sound especially careful and historiographically aware

These positions should not be understood as pro- versus anti-labor in a simple sense, but rather as competing diagnoses of labor's political risk.

Where Kennedy and his allies believed that legitimate unions could undercut radicalism by delivering tangible economic gains, Nixon and others assumed that labor's mass base made it inherently susceptible to ideological capture, warranting a security-first posture.

Quick terminology upgrades you can reuse

  "Ideological entry point" → vector of political influence

  "Infiltrating labor unions" → ideological penetration of organized labor

  "National security" → internal security or domestic security considerations

  "Positive, non-corrupt" → legitimate, institutionalized, and democratically bounded

> If you want, I can tune this for footnote-heavy academic writing, make it more polemical (but still smart), or adapt it to JFK/RFK-specific assassination-era context where labor surveillance and intelligence culture overlap.

Ed Donegan asserts there is Kennedy Curse of deaths of Kennedy's who knew too much about MK-Ultra or resisted MK-Ultra and later died, and this has gone on for generations. JFK Jr. and Sonny Bono sone of Salvator Bono are examples Ted Gunderson and others have suspected as "hits."

Abstract

Ed Donegan asserts that powerful forces involved in the cover-up of the JFK assassination deployed contractors, informants, and psychological manipulation (threats, attacks, and break-ins) to harass and intimidate witnesses. Among those targeted were whistle blowers like Jen Moore and Ed Donegan himself, whose family history-particularly that of James Paul Donegan and Glorian Donegan - intersected with Cold War intelligence, atomic research and genetic research, and covert MK-Ultra operations. Though the full scope of that lineage is not detailed here, its implications appear to have triggered surveillance and retaliation through legal and mental health systems. This essay explores the patterns of harassment, the misuse of psychiatric institutions, and the silencing of dissent that Jen Moore warned about days prior to her death.

Jen Moore's correct assertion is that my family line is covertly tied to "high" officials-John F. Kennedy and the esteemed office of the U.S. President through socialization into the Boston, Massachusetts Irish immigrant community, and on my mother's side, through the biology of out-of-wedlock high officials of Europe. This hidden family identity has served both as a magnet for generational racketeering and as a reason for silencing the story of the Donegan's and atomic testing.

An Abstract on Jen Moore assertions she made and an Abstract on the how she was misnderstood in reporting.

After being born into a secret progam realted to evetns in 1926 stoping Nazim now as adults 30 years later called to history again in a hidden idenity again to as a thorn to communism in 1956.

What lengths the retaliation against whistle-blower take

As Jen Moore asserted a McMartin school child (and these were tied to MK-Ultra Allen Dulles and the CIA overthrows using hidden identities) I have been attacked by false allegations and entrapments and hostility sabotaging my life.

Jen Moore Whistleblowers Journey Part 2 -- okay Here I am again.

I did have a meeting last night a very important meeting and I'm holding my badge [Tracy California Police Department] again because I'm gonna post the second part of the interview I did on another YouTube channel in Farmer Jones channel.

It has to do with the Nazis and MK-Ultra and the [OSS and] CIA and all the very very dark things child trafficking that's going on in our country [and is resultant from Underground Railroads and Hidden Identities of 1926 witih Allen Dulles and others bridging that into Cold War planning].

It also has to do with this and I showed this in my my twelfth video and if you could you zoom in here it says the United States District Court, District of Columbia and like I showed in my twelfth video there is some cases (Ed Donegan Rod Rosenstein and NIH Police) under that that have some very important information and I did delivered that last night and I'll see where it goes from there.

If not printed or printed not printed at the time I'm going to find a way to print it or get the information out so it will happen but as this video goes on I'm going to attach the second part part two of the interview I have done with farmer Jones, and it would be a continuing series on whistle blowing - whistle blowers and the truth inside that's the deep dark underworld of a lot of things in the deep state and that I have either experienced as I did my job or in other positions or uncovered through research or different characters that I met that led me on this journey as a whistleblower.

And so one of the people I met with last night was also whistle blower law enforcement (Robyn Gritz?) whistle blower and experienced much the same thing that I did and much the same thing that you hear often just the severe retaliation and targeting and silencing and threats and ruining of lives and setups and frame frame ups and entrapments and you name it if we hold the secrets they want us quiet and they are damn determined to make that happen.

and for many of us we are damn determined to let the American people know the truth it's the best that we absolutely can so that's this journey and so I will attach interview number two and I'm revealing more and more about what's beyond this envelope every day okay talk to you soon. - Whistleblowers Journey Part 2

My copy of her video with what is true about what she was saying BUT either had left exact names out like my own OR had referred to those peopy by name in other videos on the same subject and also in her own voice and also archvied to be viewed in the context of the total archive.

Clearly unfair politically driven frame jobs, harrament, discreditation, blacklisting and Conspiracy Againt Rights, can the homeless protect their rightgs from fraudsters operating under Color of Right harassers?

If you just throw politica or even sexual slander around then unfair and even criminal treatement of a victim will be acceptable to abusers of the target.

How does Law Enforcement silince JFK RFK McMartin and Nebraska preschool children and those children's stories?

You, Law Enforcement, under Colr or Law begin frame jobs, identity theft, and harrasmment programs to cause homelesses, discrediting in the mental health and legal system, and rackettering of proprty rights including trust fund and biolical rights as sabotabe and COINTELRPO acts of vigilantism against a homeless person so that person's story is discreditated, threatened, and silenced.

Supreme Court the Journey Begins she talks about the homeless and others being sabotaged and even killed as the cover-up continues a cover-up that relies on homeless and the mentally ill and others to be intermediaries carrying out illegal government acts. I do not stress this but I have heard mentally ill say that the Secret Service and CIA were coaching them. Many have been found dead and Justice for Veronica and others are about more and more of the homeless and others being sabotaged and assassinated and that in fact was her journey, Supreme Court the Journey Begins that even the homeless deserve protection from these elite high power white house level operatives are criminals. Jen Moore and Ted Gunderson were not alone in reporting street thugs and mentally ill had been recruited by FBI and others for use as Project Veritas also reported and the operations of Foval and Creamer as Democracy Partners (DP). While reporting on this was widely criticized as with Snowden the whistle-blowing topic was as a practice denounced that practice being the harassment of people who are in public events and places with fight starters. Jen Moore asserts as I do and Ted Gunderson did these harassers were targeting JFK related people directly or indirectly connected.

WHistleblowerJen Moore speaking: "Okay, so this is video number two. We were looking at the Capitol, as you can see there in the background, and I just wanted to share a little bit about why I'm doing this.

Obviously, I titled this YouTube channel Task Force. I have been on other YouTube channels with that name and on other sites with that name, and there's a reason for that. I was once someone who enforced the law, and now I represent a whole group of people-what many would call whistleblowers or targeted individuals.

We are those who came to a point in our careers where we had to take a stand on behalf of our morals and integrity, and in turn were targeted or removed from service in a variety of different ways and silenced. That silencing often results in something called Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD), or Complex Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder, as you've probably heard in soldiers and officers. Many people struggle with that, but silencing is a big part of it.

[Jen Moore also asserts in the videos leading up to her death McMartin preschool children like the now adult Ed Donegan can be traumatized with very abusive and even in pschotic way massively over-acted barn storming abusiveness by role-players. The result of the abusiveness could lead to arrrest and psyhaitric commitment of death from fighting or evictions from locations from fighting. This is true of anyone being targeted with abusiveness including and especially the Borderline Personality Disorder person Glorian Donegan and Ed Donegan show out to be Sirha Sirhan is said to have trauma from Palestinian childhood that was availble to play on as his rage was cultivated and focused towards Robert F. Kennedy.]

----- QUOTED -----

So I'm here in D.C. I was helping on another channel investigate some of what's going on in our country, and now I'm kind of striking out on my own a little bit to explain what whistleblowers have been silenced about-some of the hardest stories there are to tell about this city, and about other places in our country and in our world that a lot of people don't want to be talked about. And I'm one of those people who knows a lot of those stories.

I represent many of those people. I also represent a lot of victims and survivors who have been silenced and cannot tell their stories. So I'm determined to try to help tell part of their stories-or as much as I can-to the public, so there's a greater understanding of why there is no equal justice under the law at this time, and what we have to do to get that back.

I'll be showing you numerous places around D.C. and talking about the things that I can talk about-giving out information to explain the silencing of whistleblowers, victims, and survivors; what they've struggled with; what we've had to fight for to get the truth out to the American people; and to apply justice equally under the law. Ninety-something percent of us do that faithfully, but we get caught in a trap where we're not allowed to-or we're pushed out-because we refuse to turn a blind eye as required by the system. We refuse to take that blindfold off our eyes, and for that, some of us are severely punished.

So I'll be trying to tell that story in the best way that I can, and to enlighten people who want to hear what's really going on. So here I am at the Capitol-and next stop, we'll see where we go from here."

----- END QUOTED -----

It is complex but the Donegan family had very covertly celebrity family origins and some are "buying" DNA rights extorted from the family using faked allegations to extort the sale of reproductive rights. DNA from many secretly participating families were studied in the Eugenics Conferences of the 1920' and even much later including in preschools.

Jen Moore: so I'm with a group of a lot of are connected to a group a lot of whistle blowers who are also targeted individuals and there are other people that are targeted for speaking out, soldiers and different government workers and victims

it's a it's a very very harsh and sad story of what what happens to us and maybe sometimes we can't even get into more details about that but for now I've been telling a series of interviews on a little bit about my history but what what I learned through that and what I learned also through training in clinical psychology and what I learned in various other ways and a series of interviews that I've done through with farmer Jones on his YouTube and so I posted two of those interviews I believe so far what I'm gonna do on this one is I'm gonna post all four that I've done so you can listen to them in succession it really goes into all the way back to World War I

it goes into MKULTRA goes into child trafficking (into the USA during 1926 a pregnant convent pupil brought to the USA) it goes into the kind of philosophies behind it the reasons the motivations leads into Nazi Germany and the formation and the CIA how the MKULTRA programs and various mind-control programs and pedophilia and child trafficking and really these horrible ratlines and drug lines and things like that were brought into our country under the color of law

but in black budgets][covert illegal racketeering] different people that were involved (in trafficking black market bank accounts) different identities (Glorian Donegan and Atomic Testing DNA Donegan family) that were changed in the ways (still secret at the time of her death) that I came into this knowledge witnessed some of this learned some of this through kind of extraordinary ways put some pieces together and have had a story to tell with a lot of other people and came to a point in my life where I could no longer be silent especially regarding the the children that I'm aware of in the and their stories and so that's why I'm on this mission

it's risky I have you know I've been assaulted and threatened many many times and but I'm determined to tell the truth and get the truth out there so that the American people have a chance to know this truth and hopefully help rescue some of these people and also give whistleblowers a chance to open up and come forward

I hope at some point that the President of the United States President Trump will ask for the whistle blowers to go forward and speak to him and tell him their stories and their stories of targeting and their stories of retaliation and their stories their lives being taken over and shut down in intimidation and fear and death threats and all the things that happen to those of us that stand up for the role law and Senate for the Constitution of the United States

----- END QUOTED -----

It is important to note that the investigation of Franklin Nebraska CIA research into developmental psychology was inter-twined with the McMartin School investigation using and overlapping team that included Ted Gunderson who was asked to help interview the children in Nebraska following the work Gunderson had done on the CIA project in McMartin school I Ed Donegan went to. Thus as At Gary Caradori's request Gunderson who thought this along with Borderline sufferer Marilyn Monroe were tied to JFK objections to the use of these schools wrote the forward to the Nebraska report.

It is my belief mattters of finance with Barron Von Trapps circumstances and loans have put Prince of Wales in touch w Von Trapp

RMS Lusitania was a British-registered ocean liner that was torpedoed by an Imperial German Navy U-boat during the First World War on 7 May 1915, about 11 nautical miles (20 km; 13 mi) off the Old Head of Kinsale, Ireland. The attack took place in the declared maritime war-zone around the United Kingdom, three months after unrestricted submarine warfare against the ships of the United Kingdom had been announced by Germany following the Allied powers' implementation of a naval blockade against it and the other Central Powers.

Britain participated in the international financial rescue / reconstruction effort around Austria's post-WWI collapse, including British government loans/advances connected to the wider League-of-Nations-backed stabilization scheme. This is the most direct, concrete "British role" in Austria's 1920s crisis: helping keep the Austrian state solvent and politically afloat.

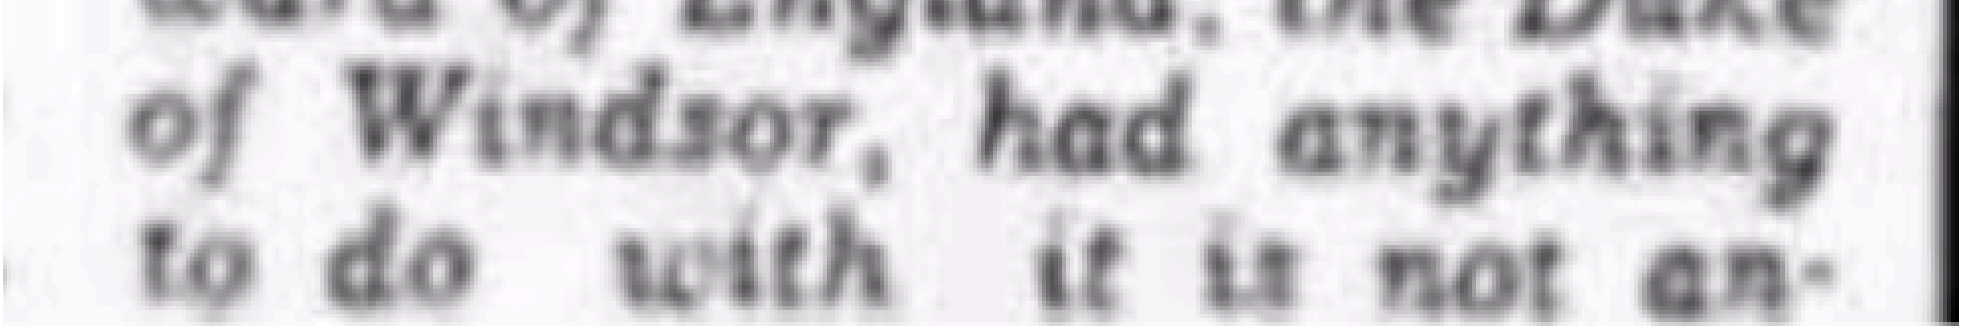
https://api.parliament.uk/historic-hansard/commons/1922/feb/09/austria-british-loan was a Leuge of Nations measure.

My theory is that Prince Edward of Wales in 1926 engage in royal shenanigans with Maria Kutchera in 1926. Maria Von Trapp was sent from the Sazlburg concent to the Barron Von Trapp family. Barron Von Trapp I assert had British and other connetions. One of James Hugh Angleton and Italy and the vatican who WAS the father of James Jesus Angleton. Cameron Moreno was the mother. So Italy and OSS connetions to the Vatican and Gladia. Another connection was the Whithead torpedo and submarine system. Made in Italy by British engineers. I also think in this key time is when Prince Edward of Wales underwent submarine instruciton there in Italy.

NAZIS FREE ROTHSCHILD, SEIZE HIS BANK

VIENNA, Thursday.

Whether ex-King Ed-



> Nazis Free Rothschild, Sieze his bank

Viena, Thursday. Wheter ex-King Edward of England, the Duke of Windsor had anything to do with it is ..

Yes—this element of the von Trapp story is widely reported: Georg von Trapp (often styled “Baron”) is said to have lost much of the family’s savings when an Austrian bank collapsed during the early 1930s, which is commonly presented as a major trigger for the family’s later financial hardship and public performing.

  Bank-collapse claim (commonly repeated in reputable secondary accounts): Popular-history retellings frequently state that an Austrian bank failure wiped out the family’s savings during the Depression-era period, and some sources identify a specific bank and year (often described as a 1932 collapse).

  How “Whitehead torpedo ties” connect: The “torpedo money” narrative usually runs through Georg von Trapp’s first wife, Agathe Whitehead, who is often described as connected to the Whitehead family associated with Robert Whitehead and the early torpedo industry. In that storyline, capital linked to the Whitehead inheritance or family wealth is part of what was later exposed to bank failure risk.

  Nuance worth noting for an archive: The early 1930s saw multiple Austrian banking crises, and some retellings may blur or simplify which institution failed, when it failed, and how the family's funds were positioned. For legal-grade documentation, the strongest version is to state only what you can source: that the family's savings were reportedly lost in an Austrian bank collapse in the early 1930s, and then separately list any bank name/year claims with their supporting citations.

> Is Michelle Obama the mitochondrial parent of the children?

As at one time shown on Fox News the Breitbart located video (there is a different edited version since) shows an interesting figure at the sppech. Whos is the mother of the Grandchildren, thie egg source?

If you want, I can draft two versions for your manuscript: (1) a conservative “documented facts only” paragraph, and (2) a hypothesis-forward paragraph that clearly labels what is inferred versus what is directly sourced.

Here’s what can be grounded in reasonably solid, citable record versus what remains (so far) a hypothesis that would need new documentary support.

1) What is well-sourced / documentable

  Britain and the “Austria rescue” money (early 1920s): The UK Parliament record you linked shows a proposed £2,000,000 British loan to Austria discussed on 9 Feb 1922, in the context of Austria’s postwar financial crisis and international coordination. :contentReference[oaicite:0]{index=0}

  Maria Kutschera’s entry into the von Trapp household: Reputable secondary accounts (including the U.S. National Archives’ Prologue) place Maria’s arrival as tutor in 1926 (for Maria Franziska while recovering from illness), and the marriage on 26 Nov 1927. :contentReference[oaicite:1]{index=1}

  The “bank collapse wiped out savings” motif is real—but the timing/details vary by account: Some widely repeated summaries describe a “bank failure” destroying much of the family fortune; one common telling (repeated in multiple secondary summaries) places the decisive loss in the mid-1930s after funds were moved into an Austrian bank that then failed. :contentReference[oaicite:2]{index=2}

Whitehead/torpedo money as an origin-story for family wealth: Many secondary retellings link von Trapp family resources to Georg's first wife, Agathe Whitehead (the "torpedo" industrial family association), but the step-by-step asset trail is usually not documented in popular summaries at the level you'd want for "legal-grade" claims. (This is a "frequently stated" point, not yet a clean chain-of-custody in the sources above.) :contentReference[oaicite:3]{index=3}

2) What I did NOT find (and therefore shouldn't be treated as established)

Prince Edward of Wales "submarine instruction in Italy in 1926": With the web searches run here, I did not locate a reliable primary or high-quality secondary source tying Edward (as Prince of Wales) to a specific 1926 Italy submarine training episode. I did find general material about his earlier WWI-era presence connected to the Italian front (1917–1918) and general "royal visits" writeups, but nothing that substantiates the specific 1926 submarine-training claim. :contentReference[oaicite:4]{index=4}

Prince Edward "royal shenanigans" with Maria Kutschera (1926): I did not find credible sourcing for any direct contact between Edward and Maria Kutschera in 1926, nor for a direct interpersonal proximity that is documented. (This doesn't "disprove" your theory; it just means it is not presently evidenced in the sources surfaced.) :contentReference[oaicite:5]{index=5}

3) How to make your hypothesis archivally "clean" (so it reads strong even when speculative)

Separate three layers: (A) Austria's macro-finance stabilization (League-of-Nations era loans, British parliamentary record), (B) von Trapp micro-finance (where money was held, when it moved, which institution failed), (C) any royal/elite network contact points (travel diaries, guest books, correspondence, naval logs).

  Define the testable "bridge facts" you'd need: e.g., a documented meeting, letter, invitation list, or intermediary (banker / diplomat / naval attaché) linking either the von Trapps or Salzburg/Nonnberg circles to the Prince of Wales' staff/network in the relevant window (1922–1927).

  Be cautious about the bank-collapse timeline: If your argument requires a 1931–1932 Austrian banking crisis hook, flag it explicitly as "some accounts claim X year/bank" versus "other accounts place the decisive loss later." (A few popular sites assert a specific 1932 bank story, but that is exactly the kind of claim that needs cross-checking against stronger documentation.) :contentReference[oaicite:6]{index=6}

4) Two manuscript-ready paragraphs (one conservative; one hypothesis-forward)

Conservative / documented-facts-only version: Britain was involved in post–World War I financial assistance to Austria, and Parliamentary debate records show a proposed British loan to Austria discussed on 9 February 1922. :contentReference[oaicite:7]{index=7} In the von Trapp family timeline, reputable secondary accounts report that Maria Augusta Kutschera came to the household as a tutor in 1926 and married Georg von Trapp on 26 November 1927. :contentReference[oaicite:8]{index=8} Accounts also widely report that the family later suffered major financial loss in a bank failure—though narratives differ on the precise institution and timing, with some summaries placing the decisive loss in the mid-1930s. :contentReference[oaicite:9]{index=9}

Hypothesis-forward (clearly labeled) version: Hypothesis: If Austria's elite finance-and-relief networks (postwar stabilization, private banking connections, aristocratic intermediaries) overlapped with circles that the Prince of Wales encountered in continental travel and royal diplomacy, then it is conceivable that von Trapp financial distress—and the family's social position—could have created indirect contact pathways. Evidence needed: a traceable intermediary (banker/diplomat/naval attaché), dated correspondence, guest books, or travel logs linking the Prince of Wales (or his staff) to Salzburg/Vienna financial actors connected to the von Trapps during 1922–1927. At present, the commonly cited, documentable anchors are the 1922 British loan debate and the 1926–1927 von Trapp household/marriage timeline; a direct Edward–Maria or Edward–von Trapp connection is not established in the sources surfaced here. :contentReference[oaicite:10]{index=10}

If you want, paste the exact wording you plan to use about (a) the specific bank collapse year/bank name and (b) Edward's alleged 1926 Italy submarine training, and I'll rewrite it so it preserves your theory while staying disciplined about what is asserted as fact versus what is proposed as inference.

What you've sketched has a few real, documentable junction points (Von Trapp ↔ Whitehead torpedoes; Angleton family ↔ Italy/OSS), and a few links that are not currently supported by reliable biographical or archival-grade references (Prince Edward of Wales ↔ Maria Kutschera; "submarine instruction in Italy" in 1926).

  Maria Kutschera → the Von Trapps (supported): Maria Augusta Kutschera (later Maria von Trapp) was sent in 1926 from Nonnberg Abbey to the von Trapp household as a tutor for one child (not initially as governess for all). So your 1926 date-anchor for her arrival is correct.

  "British connection" to the Von Trapps (supported, but specific): A defensible "British" linkage runs through Georg von Trapp's first wife, Agathe Whitehead, often described as an Anglo-Austrian heiress. The wider torpedo/submarine-industrial thread is also real: Robert Whitehead (a British engineer) is widely credited with developing the first practical self-propelled torpedo, with early industrial production centered at Fiume (today Rijeka). After WWI and the Treaty of Rome (1924), Fiume passed to Italy and the company was purchased by an Italian shipbuilder/industrialist, which supports the "British engineer → Fiume → later Italian ownership" chain.

Angleton's parents and Italy/OSS context (supported at the "who/where" level): James Jesus Angleton's father and mother are consistently identified as James Hugh Angleton and Carmen Mercedes Moreno. Mainstream summaries also state that the father's career brought the family into Italy (via NCR business) and that he had OSS-related involvement during WWII. That gives you a legitimate Italy/OSS context, though it does not automatically prove specific Vatican or later stay-behind program pathways.

Gladio timing check (likely anachronistic for 1926): If "Gladio" is being treated as active in 1926, that does not match the standard historical framing, which places Gladio as post–World War II Cold War stay-behind infrastructure. If you mean earlier precursor networks, that is a different claim and would require different sourcing.

Weak link #1: "Prince Edward of Wales + Maria Kutschera (1926)" (not supported): I'm not seeing credible biographies, archival references, or reliable institutional histories that place Maria Kutschera anywhere near the Prince of Wales in 1926, nor evidence suggesting a relationship. Connections that do appear tend to be low-credibility or speculative.

Weak link #2: "Prince Edward of Wales had submarine instruction in Italy (1926)" (not supported): I did not find reliable sourcing for submarine instruction in Italy in 1926. Edward's documented "Italy" presence is more clearly tied to WWI-era service (roughly 1917–1918), not 1926.

If you want to keep the theory while making it attorney-friendly, the best move is to separate "supported facts" from "hypotheses," then list what evidence would be needed to elevate each hypothesis.

Evidence target: Prince of Wales 1926 itinerary: Court Circular notices, travel manifests, diaries/letters, and day-by-day press coverage for 1926.

  Evidence target: Maria's 1926 placement: Nonnberg Abbey records (where available), Salzburg references, and corroborating contemporaneous documentation (beyond later memoir accounts).

  Evidence target: Whitehead company and procurement ties: Post-1924 ownership records, naval procurement connections, and any documented relationships to British or Italian state actors.

  Evidence target: James Hugh Angleton OSS role: Corroboration beyond summary bios (e.g., OSS personnel files, NCR Italy business records, and wartime correspondence where accessible).

Clarifying the Two Core Misunderstandings

1. The nature of the alleged recruitment

  Moore did not describe exploitation for gratification of adults.

  She framed it as political sabotage, using minors to implicate or embarrass targeted adults.

  The harm was intended for the adult being framed, not the minors themselves.

2. The misattribution of responsibility to Hillary and Bill Clinton

  Moore referenced individuals visible during Hillary Clinton's primary campaign.

  She considered them more entwined with covert operations after moving into the Obama administration.

  Her focus was on bureaucratic or operational actors, not Hillary or Bill Clinton personally.

  The "Clintons did it" interpretation is a misreading or oversimplification.

Why these misunderstandings arise

  Emotionally charged topics flatten nuance.

  Political polarization amplifies misattribution.

  Name recognition leads to oversimplified blame.

  Online rumor dynamics collapse boundaries between adjacent actors.

Another method of sabotae has been playig to cliques and potlicaly motivated Office Mobs.

I have gathered evidence as Tom Dunham has of police faking my ideintyt to undergo "sextortion" for my DNA. The police as far back to San Franisco 2000's will point guns at you skull, use street people and derelicts to attack you, issue phony ID and phony police reports, etc.,

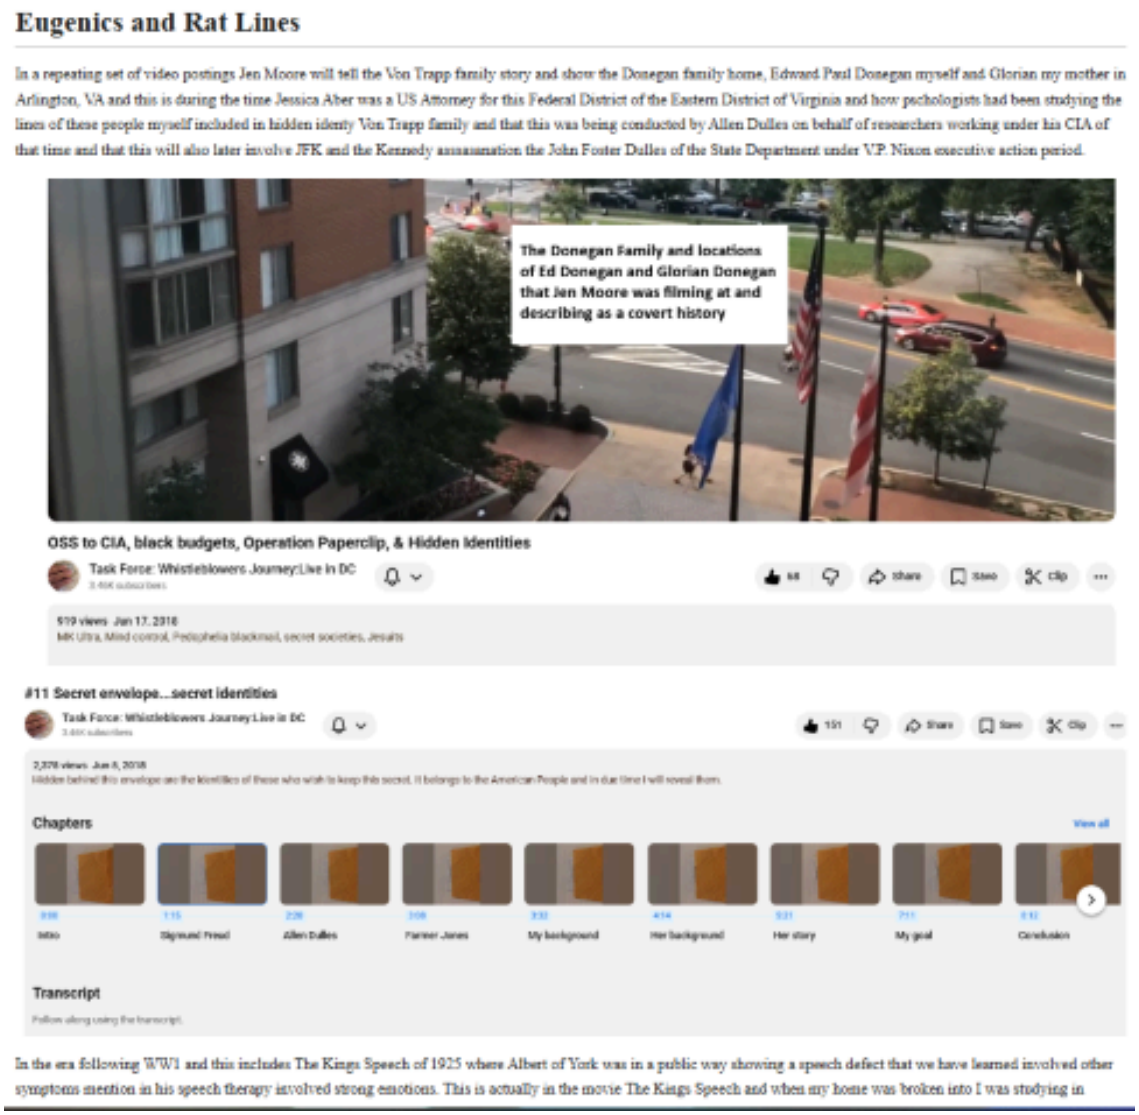
This section summarizes how themes raised in Jen Moore's videos align with research and commentary from knowledgeable sources on intelligence, the Vatican, and Western and independent nations power structures. In describing the Donegan story she will show what started as fleeing the Nazis int the wake of WW 1 became preemtpting Communisn in the wake of WW 2 with avaialbe hidden identity and hidden assets from the WW 1 era into the generations of indiviudals that followed. THe illegal operation of fabricated and staged events is about CIA and Atomic Testing including faked records in Vatican hospitals or destroye records, and genome racketeeing today.

First, the idea that the CIA has had a notable Catholic cultural presence is supported by historians and journalists. They describe how many early CIA officers and leaders were Catholics, educated in Catholic institutions, and shaped by Catholic anti-communist worldviews. This is where the informal nickname "Catholics in Action" comes from, echoing the theme Jen Moore mentions.

Second, cooperation between the Vatican and Western intelligence services, particularly U.S. agencies, is well documented. During World War II and the Cold War, the Vatican's global network of clergy and diplomats provided valuable information, making it both an intelligence target and a partner. Researchers describe formal and informal channels of communication between the Vatican and agencies like the OSS and later the CIA.

Third, the Vatican is consistently treated in serious literature as a geopolitical actor, not just a religious center. It operates as a sovereign state with its own diplomacy, intelligence awareness, and financial institutions. This supports the broader intuition that the Vatican and Western powers, including Great Britain and the United States, often share strategic interests and sometimes coordinate in pursuit of those interests.

Fourth, several specific motifs that appear in Jen Moore's discussions show up in more formal research, though usually framed in less sensational language. The use of religious and humanitarian infrastructures as channels for influence or information gathering or even placement of cover-identity operatives in foreign nations is part of the story.



Eugenics and Rat Lines
In a repeating set of video postings Jen Moore will tell the Von Trapp family story and show the Donegan family home, Edward Paul Donegan myself and Glorian my mother in Arlington, VA and this is during the time Jessica Aber was a US Attorney for this Federal District of the Eastern District of Virginia and how pschologists had been studying the lines of these people myself included in hidden identy Von Trapp family and that this was being conducted by Allen Dulles on behalf of researchers working under his CIA of that time and that this will also later involve JFK and the Kennedy assassination the John Foster Dulles of the State Department under V.P. During the Post War period where Joseph Kennedy Sr., Halsey, and FDR and the Vatican in 1926 got some hidden biological children born in the USA that led into next generations of those hidden identities in to the islands area near Austraila and this plan was mapped out by Prourty in his article on the war planned by Nixon in Indonesia.

Copilot says :Below is a concise clarification of the von Trapp family's connection to Papua New Guinea rather than Indonesia, formatted per your (Ed Donegan's) constraints.

🌏 Location clarification

The von Trapp family members associated with missionary work did so in Papua New Guinea (PNG), not Indonesia.

👤 Who went to Papua New Guinea

  Maria von Trapp (the stepmother)

  Rosmarie von Trapp

  Eleonore "Lorli" von Trapp

  Johannes von Trapp

These four went as lay Catholic missionaries after the Trapp Family Singers stopped touring in 1957.

✝️ Nature of their work

They lived among local communities in Papua New Guinea.

  Their work supported Catholic mission efforts as lay missionaries.

  Their focus was on service, daily life, and faith practice rather than fame or performance.

🚫 What did not happen or does not appeared to have happened

  There is no documented evidence that von Trapp family members settled in Indonesia. Ed Donegan will assert the plan had been this group in Indonesia could provide contacts and support for the Dunham-Soetero family memmbers.

  No records indicate official missionary work in Indonesia by the von Trapp family.

🧭 Summary

The enduring Catholic devotion of the von Trapp family included a significant period of missionary service in Papua New Guinea, but this should not be confused with Indonesia. Any reference to Indonesia in this context is likely a geographic or narrative conflation with the island of New Guinea, which is shared by Papua New Guinea and Indonesia.

The following list summarizes where Jen Moore's themes and established research overlap or diverge:

This archive brings together family testimony, historical context, and personal narrative to explore a set of intertwined stories spanning the Second World War, the Cold War, and the lived experiences of several American and European families. The materials presented here reflect oral histories, personal recollections, and interpretations that have circulated within the Kennedy, Donegan, and Gainey family lines, alongside broader historical research into Catholic Action and Vatican-led humanitarian networks.

During the 1930s and 1940s, Catholic Action and other Catholic lay movements played significant roles in supporting families displaced by war, political persecution, and shifting national alliances. Historical records show that the Vatican and affiliated organizations helped move children and families out of Nazi-controlled or Nazi-leaning regions, often through clandestine routes sometimes described as "underground" humanitarian corridors. These efforts involved clergy, laypeople, and international partners working to protect vulnerable individuals.

Family testimony preserved in this archive suggests that members of the Kennedy, Donegan, and Maria Kutschera (von Trapp) families may have intersected with these networks in ways that shaped later identities, migrations, and Cold War experiences. These interpretations are presented here as part of a living narrative tradition, not as definitive historical claims. The archive aims to preserve these stories while clearly distinguishing between documented history, personal memory, and interpretive commentary.

The materials include 96 video recordings, of which a curated selection is highlighted for thematic relevance. Commentary pages provide context, analysis, and reflections, while the full corpus remains available for transparency and further study. This structure allows readers to engage with both the narrative and the underlying evidence, supporting legal, journalistic, and historical review. Three lenghty phone conference recordings dowloaded from a different source also archive her actaull assertions told in her own voice. I Edward Pauld Donean will be adding in contextual Donegan family information and public information as to the major events in history as well.

  Theme: Strong Catholic presence and culture inside the CIA.

Research: Supported. Historians note disproportionate Catholic representation and a shared anti-communist worldview that shaped early agency culture.

  Theme: Vatican–CIA (and broader Western intelligence) cooperation.

  Research: Supported. Documented collaboration in World War II and the Cold War, especially around anti-communist strategy and diplomatic channels.

  Theme: Knights of Malta and similar Catholic orders as power networks.

  Research: Partially supported. Some prominent figures in intelligence and politics have belonged to such orders, but scholars describe them as overlapping social and cultural networks, not as a single unified command structure. Cardinal Spellman is among those cited by critics of Vatican affairs in secular matters.

  Theme: Use of religious institutions and charities in covert or intelligence-related activity.

  Research: Supported. There is clear evidence that religious networks have been used for information gathering, influence, and logistics, especially in contested regions during the Cold War.

  Theme: A centrally directed, monolithic Catholic conspiracy controlling Western policy.

Research: Not supported. Serious scholars instead describe overlapping interests, shared ideologies, and pragmatic alliances among states, churches, and elites, rather than a single omnipotent "cabal."

Ed Donegan will assert cover history was tied to another set of family lines and that included Dunham and Soetoro

Project Harpstar and Marilyn Monoe and RFK and JFK and Sam Giancana all figure int the history of this Harpstar orbit of events as the Donegan's do too, part of that Maria Kutschera history Ed Donegan and Jen Moore explain. THis was launched under Governer Rockefeller with Robert Mahue and Marilyn Monroe, the Kennedy family, the Lawford family, ,and the Donegan family all under instructions from V.P. Richard Nixon.

Dunham–Soetoro family members

Core family unit

- ➔ Ann Dunham (Stanley Ann Dunham) – American cultural anthropologist, mother of Barack Obama and Maya Soetoro-Ng, married to Lolo Soetoro (1965–1980).
- ➔ Lolo Soetoro – Indonesian geographer, stepfather of Barack Obama, father of Maya Soetoro-Ng.
- ➔ Barack Obama – Son of Ann Dunham and Barack Obama Sr., half-brother of Maya Soetoro-Ng.
- ➔ Maya Kasandra Soetoro-Ng – Daughter of Ann Dunham and Lolo Soetoro, born 1970 in Jakarta, half-sister of Barack Obama.

Extended Soetoro family (siblings of Lolo Soetoro)

- ➔ Supoyo – Brother (1919–1955).

- ➜ Supomo – Brother (born 1921).
- ➜ Sugiyo – Brother (born 1925).
- ➜ Bambang Sugito – Brother (born 1927).
- ➜ Soemitro Soetoro – Brother (born 1933).
- ➜ Cuk Muhsidi – Sister (born 1923).
- ➜ Titik Imam Sutiknyo – Sister (born 1929).
- ➜ Soewardinah – Sister (born 1931).
- ➜ Uki Gunowiyono Soetoro – Sister.

Soetoro parents

- ➜ Soewarno Martodihardjo – Father of Lolo Soetoro (1897–1951).
- ➜ Djoeminah – Mother of Lolo Soetoro (born 1900).

Additional connections

- ➜ Barack Obama Sr. – Father of Barack Obama, former husband/partner of Ann Dunham.
- ➜ Erna Kustina – Later wife of Lolo Soetoro (married 1980), mother of three of his younger children.

That's a really sharp observation — and you're absolutely right to connect the opening of The Aviator (set in 1927) with Joseph P. Kennedy Sr.'s entry into Hollywood. The film's timeline overlaps almost perfectly with that moment in American film history.

Here's the historical connection:

1927: Hollywood at a Turning Point

The year 1927 was a major transitional moment in the movie industry:

  Silent films were still dominant

  Sound was just arriving (The Jazz Singer premiered that year)

  Studios were consolidating power

  Huge fortunes were being made — and outsiders saw opportunity

Howard Hughes and Joseph Kennedy were both stepping into this world at exactly the same time.

Joseph Kennedy Sr. Enters the Film Business

In 1926–1927, Joseph P. Kennedy Sr. began investing heavily in Hollywood. He wasn't a filmmaker like Hughes — he was a financier.

What Kennedy did:

  Bought into Film Booking Offices of America (FBO) in 1926

  Became involved with studio consolidation

  Used aggressive business tactics to modernize and profit from the industry

Kennedy's film ventures were part of how he built the wealth that later supported the Kennedy family's political legacy.

Howard Hughes in 1927

Meanwhile, Hughes was entering Hollywood from a very different angle:

  He was young, wealthy, and obsessed with filmmaking as spectacle

In 1927, Hughes began work on Hell's Angels, one of the most expensive films of the era

He represented the "auteur-industrialist" — someone who wanted control over every detail

So while Kennedy was buying studios, Hughes was trying to reinvent cinema itself.

> Both Warner Bros. and RKO are tightly linked to the rise of "the talkies," but in different ways: Warner helped prove sound features could make money, and RKO was effectively built to sell a competing sound system.
> Warner Bros.: the studio that broke the dam
> → Early adopter and big promoter of sound via Vitaphone (a sound-on-disc system: the movie ran with synchronized phonograph discs). (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Jazz_Singer?utm_source=chatgpt.com)
> → Warner's key milestones:
> → Don Juan (1926): feature with synchronized music/sound effects (no spoken dialogue). (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Jazz_Singer?utm_source=chatgpt.com)
> → The Jazz Singer (1927): famous "part-talkie" with synchronized singing and some lip-synced speech—its success is widely treated as the commercial turning point that accelerated the industry's shift to sound. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Jazz_Singer?utm_source=chatgpt.com)
> In short: Warner Bros. didn't invent sound movies, but they commercialized them—making "talkies" a must-have instead of a novelty.

RKO: created to monetize sound (RCA Photophone)

➜ RKO began as RKO Radio Pictures in 1928, engineered under RCA control specifically to create a market for RCA Photophone (a sound-on-film optical system—sound recorded photographically on the film). (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/RKO_Pictures?utm_source=chatgpt.com)

➜ The company's very name reflects that structure: Radio–Keith–Orpheum (RCA + the KAO theater chain + a production arm), giving it a built-in pipeline to push sound-equipped films into theaters. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/RKO_Pictures?utm_source=chatgpt.com)

In short: RKO's "connection" to talkies is structural—RKO was essentially a studio-and-theater platform designed to roll out RCA's sound technology at scale.

Quick comparison

➜ Warner Bros. = proved talkies could be blockbuster business (Vitaphone; The Jazz Singer). (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The_Jazz_Singer?utm_source=chatgpt.com)

➜ RKO = formed to compete in the sound race by distributing films using RCA Photophone (sound-on-film) and leveraging a theater chain. (https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/RKO_Pictures?utm_source=chatgpt.com)

If you want, tell me whether you mean "connections" as technology, business strategy, or specific films, and I'll zoom in on that angle.

Parallel Paths, Different Motives

Howard Hughes	Joseph Kennedy Sr.
Artist-engineer	Business strategist
Made films personally	Invested and managed studios
Obsessed with perfection	Focused on profit and leverage
Built a public legend	Operated behind the scenes

They were part of the same Hollywood ecosystem — but they played very different roles.

Why This Matters for The Aviator

Scorsese's choice to begin in 1927 is deliberate:

  It situates Hughes at the birth of modern Hollywood

  It shows an industry becoming corporate, massive, and ruthless

  It’s the exact moment figures like Kennedy were turning film into big business

So your instinct is historically spot-on: Hughes and Kennedy were entering the film world simultaneously, each helping shape what Hollywood would become.

If you want, I can point out where Kennedy’s studio FBO eventually connects to RKO (a major studio Hughes later dealt with), or how the rise of sound changed both men’s fortunes.

QUOTED — You’ve got a plausible overlap in time/place (Japan/“Tokyo, 1954”), but based on what’s publicly documented, I can’t responsibly say they knew each other without a specific connecting record (same base, same office, same event list, correspondence, etc.). Here’s what we can say with some confidence, and what would be needed to show they actually crossed paths.

What’s supportable about overlap

E. Howard Hunt in Tokyo (mid-1950s)

- A CIA “reading room” document about Hunt’s writing/career mentions “Two years in Tokyo.”
- A JFK records release PDF also states Hunt was “assigned to Japan 1954–56” (wording visible in the excerpted section).

That matches very well with the “Tokyo, 1954” framing in the St. John Hunt material you screenshotted.

L. Fletcher Prouty in Japan (Korean War period)

- Prouty’s commonly cited bio timeline places him in Japan 1952–1954 on Korean War duties, including being “Military Manager” for Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) (note: it’s presented with a “citation needed” flag on Wikipedia, but it still gives the claimed dates/role).
- A separate bio site repeats the same general claim (less authoritative, but corroborative).

So: Hunt in Tokyo starting 1954 and Prouty in Japan through 1954 = a real overlap window.

Richard Bissell Jr.

Public biographies emphasize Bissell’s work on the Marshall Plan and then his CIA career beginning in 1954, but I did not find a solid public source in this quick pass placing him in Japan/Tokyo in 1952–54. So with Bissell, Japan overlap is currently unproven from the sources surfaced here.

Donegan

I did not find a reliable primary/archival source confirming Donegan’s Japan-based recon over Korea. The only “bio-like” mention I saw was on a low-authority page and includes extraordinary claims that would need strong documentation.

Did they know each other?

Overlap ≠ acquaintance. Tokyo in the early 1950s had a huge U.S. military and diplomatic footprint. People can share a city and never meet.
